[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JULY 21.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The French Assembly.

VERSAILLES, July 20.—In the Assembly today Brunnott moved a resolution that Deputies who did not take their seats within a specified time will be considered as having resigned. This is directed at the Orleans Princes.

Monarchical demonstrations in the Provinces are expected during the recess of the Assembly.

Rollin has announced himself a candidate for the first vacancy in the Assembly.

The War Indemnity.

BERLIN, July 20.—It is officially reported that 400,000,000 francs of the indemnity were received from France on the 15th inst., of which 12,000,000 were silver. 52,000,000 have arrived since the 15th.

PARIS, July 20.—Gen. L. Admiranlt prohibits electoral meetings in Paris.

Spanish Affairs.

MADRID, July 20.—The Ministers assembled this afternoon with the intention of tendering collectively their resignations to the King. It is believed that the Cortes will adjourn until the ministerial crisis is over. The King is consulting with the leaders of different parties with a view to the formation of an entirely new Cabinet.

British Parliament.

LONDON, July 20.—In the House of Commons this evening Gladstone announced the solution of the purchase problem by cancelling the Royal warrant legalizing the purchase of commissions in the army. He declared that the House of Lords though impugning the Government plan for its abolition had failed to sustain the purchase system; hence Ministers had advised Her Majesty to take this action which effectually disposes of the question in accordance with the manifest will of the country.

Dispatch from Berne.

BERNE, July 20.—The Council of State recommends the Federal Council to take measures to secure the agreement of the Powers to a definition of the rights and obligations of neutrals, to be binding on all.

Sensation in the British Parliament.

LONDON, July 20.—It is impossible to describe the scene in either House on the announcement of the sale of the purchase system. The Lords wore deeply moved but decided in demonstration. In the House of Commons astonishment and uncertainty were ill concealed. The Tories were confounded and their leaders puzzled to suggest what action shall be taken in the event which, they were hardly prepared for. Notwithstanding the obscure foreshadowings in the Standard of yesterday and to-day, the opinion of all is that this bold and even desperate stroke was necessary to satisfy popular feeling and to avert other consequences in domestic circles.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Loan in Europe.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Secretary of the Treasury has received a letter from Judge Richardson, who speaks encouragingly of the prospects for negotiating the loan in England, though there is nothing definite on that point.

The Union Republican Resident Executive Committee are engaged in reorganizing the Republican party of North Carolina and in the efforts to defeat the Constitutional Convention movement. All that public matter documents are kept from their committees in this city in aid of the work.

EASTERN STATES.

Prosecutions in New York.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The Board of Aldermen to-day appointed a special committee to draft an ordinance to define and regulate the use of streets, roads, avenues and public places for purposes of public processions other than funeral, and pageantry other than that of military organized in pursuance of the laws of the State.

CANADA.

Sentiments on the New York Riot.

TORONTO, July 20.—At a special meeting of the Loyal Orange District Lodge of Toronto a resolution was passed expressing the great satisfaction felt by Orangemen here, that in spite of the great danger which the Orangemen of New York have been exposed to, they remained faithful to the old cry of "No Surrender!" It was also resolved that a committee be appointed to draft an address to His Excellency Gov. Hoffman of New York, and another addressed to the brave Orangemen of the city of New York expressive of the feeling of this meeting, as set forth in the preceding resolution; and when said address shall be prepared and approved, that it be presented by a deputation to be chosen by said committee; and it was further resolved that subscriptions be immediately entered into by all classes of people for the purpose of erecting in this city an Orange Hall, to be called Hoffman Commemoration Hall, in which Lodges are to meet annually to commemorate the noble assertion of freedom on this continent on the same memorable day in 1871 as it was secured in Europe in 1690 by our forefathers at the Boyne.

CALIFORNIA.

Fire at Truckee.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—The Western Union Telegraph operator at Truckee reported, at ten o'clock last night that a large fire was raging in that place and he was obliged to remove his instruments, as the fire was approaching the telegraph building. At a later hour the operator at Reno reported that the fire was distinctly visible there. The wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company running through Truckee were intact at the hour of closing last night.

Some detectives, who have investigated the matter of the alleged assault on Mrs. Higby, and a large portion of the public, express the opinion unequivocally, that the affair is simply a dodge to create the impression that Mrs. Fair and her friends are being persecuted for righteousness sake. Others believe implicitly in her assertions, and are satisfied that an attempt was made to murder her. The Chief of Police is so well satisfied, that he ordered all investigation of the affair to cease at once.

Coming in, Guiana in Union, San Salvador ought to J. C. Merrill & Co.; ship Cearovich Sitka, 500.

The weather continues cool, cloudy and foggy. So long a term of disagreeable weather has not been experienced in San Francisco for the last ten years.

Dispatches this morning report all the business portion of Truckee burned. Loss immense.

THE TERRITORIES.

The Methodists have completed and dedicated a new church at Port Townsend.

G. W. Miller, of Cloquato, W. T., last week killed an ox weighing 1,000 pounds.

The value of property in Nez Perce county, Idaho including the town of Lewiston, foots up $469,856.

Early last spring two men named Livingston and Allen were drowned in Snake river above Lewiston. Both bodies were found recently, one in Snake river and the other in the Columbia near Celilo.

The Cincinnati Enquirer volunteers the information that when Gen. McClellan, in his letter to the Tammany celebration, advocated the payment of the 5 20 bonds in gold, he did not stand up on the Democratic national platform of 1868, and that he assumed a ground extremely repulsive to the Democracy of the United States. Candidates running upon his platform, it says, would be feebly and scantily supported in the West.

It appears by the publication of the letter, that under date of August 4, 1870, Mayor Hall sent a letter to Superintendent Jourdin, advising the suppression of the Orange parade of that year, and taking substantially the same ground on which Order No. 57 had been based. The dirty, sneaking demagogue is consistent in his infamy.

OREGON.

The Oregon City Woolen Mill Co. have bought half a million pounds of wool.

Dr. H. Parrish, an old citizen of Linn county, died last Sunday at Knox's Butte.

Linn county has an abundant crop of potatoes growing, and hopes not to be compelled to import from California.

The Concordia and Athenæum are the names of the two rival Societies in Wallamet University. They had a literary concert on last Wednesday evening, which delighted the audience.

M. E. Payne and wife live on the bank of Snake river. The other day while they were down at the river engaged in the charming sport of fishing somebody got into their house and stole $800.

The Statesman corrects the statement that the municipal government of Salem costs $30,000 a year. It costs about $5,000. Including street improvements and everything else, about $12,000.

The County Court of Clackamas has addressed a letter to Superintendent Meacham, asking him to abate the Indian nuisance of that place by collecting the Indians upon the reservations. We learn that most of the Lodims infesting Oregon towns belong to Washington Territory.

Degrees were awarded the graduating class in Wallamet University on Thursday. The graduates were nine in number, five ladies and four gentlemen, viz: Lafayette Williams, Amelia E. Scriber, Virginia Condit, Madison D. Jones, Sarah Bridges, Frank M. Hobson, Phebe Jory, Augustus A. Bonney and Eliza Robinson.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of Wallamet University, held at Salem, on Tuesday evening last, the following persons were elected officers of the Board for the ensuing year: Rev. J. L. Parrish, President; Rev. G. Hines, Vice President; C. N. Terry, Secretary; John Meares, Treasurer; and A. F. Waller, John Meares, C. C. Stratton, E. M. Strong, C. N. Terry, F. R. Smith, and T. M. Gatch, Executive Committee.

CURRENT NOTES.

Up to the 15th the dead in the New York hospitals and morgues, resulting from the riot, number sixty one.

The number of employees in the office of the San Francisco Call is 102. The weekly expenses of the paper are $3,142, or $162,864 a year.

Edward Jeffrey, a member of the 9th (New York) Regiment, was detained at the Fifth Avenue Hotel by the sickness of his wife at the time of the riot. When released at for being away from the post of duty, became exasperated and put his throat from ear to ear.

A Washington telegram says: Associate journals have subjected the expressions in which Grant announced the pardon of Bowen to severe criticism, it is but fair to state that the copy of the pardon furnished to the press, upon which these comments have been based, contained a material error. The correct official copy has the phrase: "And, whereas, it is represented that he was innocent of intentional violations of the law." The word "intentional" is omitted in the pardon, as published.

Captain Tallaferro, Captain in the Confederate service, now a planter near Macon, Miss., testified before the Ku Klux Committee, on the 15th, that within the past year in that county, fifteen colored men were killed and a number whipped; there is an organized band of Ku Klux in the county; he had attended three or four meetings of it, although he never took the required oath; the proposition of those present was that he was a member of the Klan, and he had been initiated by the Captain of the band, who can swear in. A number of his friends and neighbors all belonged to the band. Witness gave the Committee details of the organization, the signs, grips, etc. On one occasion he went on the road with the band, and was present at the whipping of several colored men, but after this he did not go any more. The object was to gain the entire control of the negroes, and make them vote as their leaders required. No prosecution has or would be instituted in that county; no one dare prosecute. He has been a witness before the Grand Jury at Oxford, and on his testimony several members of the Ku Klux were indicted.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Memphis Appeal claims that two-thirds of the newspapers in Western Tennessee are joined with it in deadly opposition to the New Departure.

The New Orleans Citizens' Guard says of Salmon P. Chase: "He has made all that he can out of the Republicans, and now supposes that he can wheedle the poor destructed Democracy into the belief that he should be the man of their choice."

The St. Joseph (Mo.) Herald says: "The enormous load of debt imposed upon the country by reason of the Democratic rebellion is being gradually but surely extinguished, by the wise and safe management of the part which sustained the country in its day of trial."

The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist states as a fact well known in political circles, that the Valandigham resolutions of Montgomery county, Ohio, were concocted at the St. Nicholas Hotel, New York City, in a conclave of leading politicians from different States. Who were present from the South it is not informed.

The New Orleans Price Current, which represents the commercial element of the reconstructed rebellion, is utterly confounded by the "New Departure." It is just beginning to realize the permanent consequences of the late "last battle" of the South. "The decision by a large and armed majority of the people of the States had no right to secede, and that allegiance of every citizen is primarily due to the Federal Government, is fraught with a momentous effect upon the political parties of the period." The facts can no longer be ignored. The Price Current affirms, "upon the authority of the late war and of the late Democratic platform of Ohio," "that the rights of the States have been abandoned by the only party that professes to maintain them." "With this solo practical remedy of secession stricken out of the creed, we do not see what longer divides parties at the North." The Price Current interprets the situation with graphic force. The old humbug of States' Rights is finally exploded.

There was a celebration in London the other day, to raise funds to build a monument in honor of Sir Walter Scott. To give additional eclat to the spectacle and put money into the treasury of the affair, nearly all the royal family of Great Britain volunteered "for that occasion only." The Prince and Princess of Wales, Prince and Princess Christian, Prince Teck, Princess Louise and Marquis of Lorne, and Prince Arthur, appeared in costumes of characters in Scott's novels. Here was an array of talent which should have drawn much money for the benefit of the Waverly monument, for what loyal Briton would not come out with half a guinea to see Princes and Princesses of the blood royal dance the Highland Fling in the costume of "The Lord of the Isle," and "Madge Wildfire," or tread a few measures as "Ivanhoe" and "Amy Robsart?" But the whole show netted only the paltry sum of £500. If it were not for having a jolly time, these royal personages might have saved their dignity and done as much for the monument fund by giving the £500 out of hand. And yet the affair is called in London an immense success. Only think how such a royal show would pay in New York!

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Excitement in England.

LONDON, July 21.—The Times says the act of the Ministry, it regrets the great issue raised but hopes the Lords will think before themselves of the country.

The News approves of the conduct of the Government in making Gladstone the exponent of the popular will and recommends the Lords to pass the bill.

The Telegraph is exultant. Gladstone is more popular in vindicating the dignity of the House of Commons than in securing the harvest of a laborious session, reorganizing defense or guarding the interests of the army.

The Post says the course of the government is somewhat unconstitutional in bringing Parliament into contempt.

The Standard says Gladstone greatly violated his privileges. Parliament is wasting its time in precipitating a constitutional crisis.

EASTERN STATES.

Severe Storm on the Eastern Coast.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Advices state that Sir Wm. Logan and party, who left St. Johns, N. B., on a geological surveying expedition on the 12th inst., were entirely cut off on their route by a severe storm, which swept away bridges and flooded the principal parts of the only road they had to travel on. It is probable that the horses and baggage attached to the expedition have been either lost or badly injured, but the party are believed to be safe, inasmuch as they were provided with portable gutta percha boats and one canoe.

The storm has done considerable damage in and around the town of Topsail and Holyard of New Foundland. It is said to be a continuation of the hurricane which blew over the coast of Labrador some weeks ago, destroying 325 fishing smacks and 23 shallops, over 40 stores and about $300,000 worth of dried fish, fishing stakes and other property. The number of lives already ascertained to have been lost is 93, while many more are expected to be added to the records.

From San Francisco.

As the bark Glympse, bound for Steilacoom, was going out of port to-day, a row occurred on board, and Captain Sorman was severely if not fatally stabbed. The bark hove to off Presidio, and five sailors were arrested by the harbor police, all of whom are charged as participants.

The Committee of conference, appointed by the different factions of the Democratic party, got together late last night, after all the wrangling was over, and made short work of fixing up a treaty of peace satisfactory to all. The terms are as follows: The proposition to hold primaries is abandoned. The County Committee will appoint one half of the delegates to the nominating convention. The citizens' Committee (Casserly's), one-fourth, and Independents (Friedlander's), one-fourth. This settles all the troubles and unites all the factions on a general ticket.

The Republican Young Men's Club movement for a straight out Republican ticket in opposition to the tax-payers' and Democratic tickets, is said to be in the interest of Tim McCarthy for Sheriff.

The case of Mrs. Higby, otherwise Lisle Lester, the friend of Mrs. Fair, who alleges she was assaulted and had skull fractured on account of her interest in the Fair case, elicits much unfavorable comment. Chief Crowley, to test both her assertions, desired to see the threatening letters she said she had received. She stated they had been sent to Oregon to her husband. The Chief then proposed that a consultation of physicians be held to ascertain the character and extent of the alleged injuries she had sustained, but subsequently was notified that Mrs. Higby would not consent to see the physicians named by the Chief, so the mystery, if there is any, is as far as ever from being cleared up.

A. W. Bender, who shot himself some weeks since in the brain, owing to family unhappiness, died yesterday.

A Representative Democrat.

"Vice-President" Stephens is one of those strong "Democrats" who refuse to "depart." He has a sufficient consciousness of his own political sagacity, as witness the following from his paper:

It is an approximation to the perfection of human wisdom to know when, where, and how to "grasp the tenth and to have all its wings." We do not profess to have attained that point, but we do believe we have made as few mistakes in this particular during our life as most public men of our age and experience.

And further on:

Whether the policy we advocate points to the defeat of the Democracy in 1872 or not, is simply a question of judgment. Now, whether our judgment or that of Mr. Bard should be entitled to most weight with that large class of persons throughout the United States who are now looking to the success of the Democratic party in 1872 as the only sure hope of escape from the impending ruin threatening our free institutions, is, of course, not for us to decide; but we do think that there are some things that should be duly considered by others in deciding that question. One of these things is the previous judgments of the same parties upon like matters, and their results. In this view of the subject, we ask all who feel an interest in the question, if ever, during our whole political course, we indicated a line of policy for any party political organization we acted with, which, when pursued, led to defeat? May more: we ask, farther, if in all such cases, when our judgment was overruled, defeat did not follow?

He concluded by likening himself to Themistocles who, when the fate of all Greece depended on the "Departure" which should be taken, exclaimed, "Strike, but hear me!" And, says Mr. Stephens "He was heard. His policy was adopted. Hailed to no defeat, but to glorious victory!"

The Daily Oregonian.

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 22, 1871.

Figures Examined.

The present water company of this city no doubt begins to discern the signs of the times, and to feel the necessity of attempting something to counterwork the purpose of our citizens in the matter of obtaining a better, more abundant and cheaper supply of water. Hence they seem to have set their agent at the work of writing on the subject. Every day he furnishes a communication to one of the daily papers, written with an obvious endeavor to convince the citizens of Portland that they can't supply themselves with water, and that they had better stick to the old company. The last communication is quite brief, but as a specimen of logic it is quite overpowering. Here it is:

By the list of prices for water in Binghamton, published in the OREGONIAN the—

	Per Annum.
Price for water for a house of the value of $4,000 is	$8 00
City taxes in Binghamton this year are $4 60 on the $100, and on that house	184 00
Which amounts to	$192 00
The price for water for a house of the value of $4,000 in this city is	$24 00
City taxes in Portland the year are 85 cents on $100, and on that house	30 00
Which amounts to	$60 00

A difference in favor of Portland of $132 on that house.

Now we fear our readers will never be able sufficiently to admire the length and breadth and depth and height and compactness and completeness of this argument. Here, however, are a few questions which will present themselves at once to the average Portland mind:

First, how does the writer know that the city taxes at Binghamton are $4 60 on the $100?

Second, is it not just possible that this tax (supposing it to exist) is caused in large part by something else than the water works which the city has constructed?

Third, is it certain that the house in Portland worth $4,000 pays only $24 per annum for water? Rather is it not the rule that such pay from $48 to $60?

If the tax in Binghamton, resulting from various causes, were $12 50 on the $100 it might show with still greater advantage for the present water company of Portland, in a comparison like the above; but would that prove that Portland should not attempt to construct water works?

The result of the above figuring, if any result is reached, is intended to show that if Portland goes on to construct water works the tax necessary to support them will be $132 on every $4,000 in the city, or $33 on the $1,000. This tax, $33 on the $1,000, would produce nearly $200,000, or money enough in a single year to complete our water works. So it will be seen that we could build water works every year with the money which this mathematician intimates we would have to pay simply to provide for interest on cost of construction, and running expenses.

Suppose our water works cost $250,000. Interest on this sum at ten per cent. is $25,000. The taxable property of the city, assessed at the usual rates, (which are less than half its value,) is $5,000,000. A five mill levy on this sum will produce the $25,000 necessary to pay the interest. In this calculation we say nothing about the receipts for water, which would be sufficient, after paying running expenses, to meet a large part of the interest. But at most, the tax to support the works could not exceed the one-half of one per cent., or fifty cents per annum on the $100. This, let it be observed, is the most unfavorable estimate that could be placed upon it. The actual result will be much more favorable to the taxpayers. The water works may not be quite self-supporting at first, but they will soon become so.

We know not what the cause of high taxation at Binghamton may be, nor indeed, whether the taxes there are high or not. But it is absurd to suppose that a tax of $4 60 on the $100 is necessary in a city of 15,000 people whose property must be worth from $6,000,000 to $10,000,000, to pay interest on the money expended in erecting works that could not have cost above $300,000. It will require better argument than this to convince the people of Portland that they should not provide for the obtainment of better and cheaper water than they now have, and that they should continue to submit to the inconvenience and extortion to which they are subjected by the present company.

The Albany Democrat, after having opposed the "new departure" with all the arguments and all the derision it could command, now talks about "burying the hatchet of discord," that is, it proposes to swallow the principles which a few weeks ago it wouldn't touch except with a "pair of tongs," and which it was afraid to try to dissect lest on cutting into them the effluvia should prove noisome and unbearable. In its issue of the 26th May it declared that Vallandigham in proposing this "departure" wanted the Democracy "to cut loose from every principle that was but yesterday regarded as essentially Democratic, and bury the fundamental landmarks of the party under the filth and scum of the fifteenth amendment." Now, it says "to be consistent we must yield gracefully." Is this where the "consistency" comes in?

In the view of the last Legislature of Oregon, the State was so rich that it could afford just as well as not to squander on the locks at Wallamet Falls $75,000 more than would have sufficed for the enterprise. There was a body of 500,000 acres of land belonging to the school fund, which it was extremely important should be gotten rid of; and so to get rid of as much as possible of it, this $75,000 transaction, for the benefit of favorites, was consummated. This piece of business, transacted by the "prudent," "economical," "anti-subsidy," "anti-special legislation" Democracy, will not soon be forgotten.

The Albany Democrat recommends a biography of Gen. R. E. Lee as "an impartial history of the great and good man, whose noble and pure life its pages so graphically reflect." Of course every person will employ whatever language he likes in speaking of this eminent rebel, who, called perjury to treason; but we have never seen in the Democrat so warm an encomium as the above on any man who distinguished himself in the cause of patriotism during the war for the Union.

Among the good results which will follow the connection of the Tualatin river with Sucker Lake will be the obtainment of large quantities of excellent timber now growing along the whole course of the Tualatin river. Heretofore this timber has not been accessible. But after the completion of the projected canal it can be rafted down, sawed at Oswego and sent to market. Large bodies of excellent cedar timber, as well as other kinds, are found along the stream.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—The affair on board the bark Glimpsy, bound for Stillacoom, this morning, was a most deplorable one. Captain Sorman had ordered a sailor to call him at 3 A. M. to get the vessel under way. The sailor overslept and did not call him till 4 o'clock or later. Going down the harbor an altercation grew out of this delay, and the sailors allege that the Captain struck the one who failed to wake him with a bar of iron, when the latter drew a knife and stabbed him several times. One cut opened his abdomen, causing his bowels to protrude, and will prove fatal. The mate then attempted to set a signal of distress, but was prevented by the sailors. When the harbor police boarded her, five sailors were arrested, including the one who did the stabbing, and four charged with being accessories to preventing the signal being set. Captain Sorman is in the U. S. Marine Hospital, in a critical condition. The sailors are in the calaboose awaiting the result of his wounds.

It is ascertained that James K. Sheffield, found dead at the Berry House, on Wednesday, committed suicide with morphine.

The steamship America has gone into dry dock for repairs.

The following petition is being largely signed: "We, the undersigned, citizens of the city and county of San Francisco, respectfully ask the Republican County Committee of this city and county, to request the 62 gentlemen who were elected delegates to the Republican State Convention, to act as a legislative Convention, to nominate candidates for the Legislature, and to do such other business as the Committee may authorize."

The great Louisville million dollar greenback lottery, lately started recently under the management of Chas. Peters, of San Francisco, late manager of the Mercantile Library lottery, is not a success. Letters state that no excitement whatever attended the opening. No considerable number of tickets are sold up to date. Peters is greatly disappointed with the enterprize.

Stocks all broke worse than ever to-day.

Thomas S. Pearce, formerly inmate of the Stockton Insane Asylum, was committed of perjury in the municipal court to-day. He took a man from San Francisco to Victoria, had him sign a deed in the name of another man, and returning here swore to his identity as the party personated.

Chas. and Michael DeYoung, of the Chronicle, were arraigned to plead to indictments of libel to-day. Their demurrer having been overruled, they pleaded not guilty.

John Kane, the sailor arrested for stabbing Capt. Sorman, is in jail badly ironed, as alleged by himself on the hand of Capt. Sorman. The latter is now reported dying.

Some rather startling testimony was elicited before the Committee of the Board of Supervisors investigating alleged abuses in the Sheriff's office to-day. Thos. Devine, formerly keeper of the county jail, as Deputy Sheriff, testified that considerable sums had been collected for keeping prisoners from other counties and by him paid over to the Sheriff; also that the surplus left over from supplies after prisoners had been supplied, was considered as his (witness's) perquisites. He took money so gained from time to time to Sheriff White, and when he resigned his position by request of the latter, he claimed $1,600 as his due, sued White for it and got $400 on compromise. To-day before going before this Committee he was met on the street by Deputy Sheriff Brown, who told him he wanted him and Sheriff White to be good friends and paid him $400 more, saying in answer to his statement that he intended to leave immediately, that he thought it a good idea. Subsequently he saw his attorney and was advised that he must obey the subpœna and appear to testify or he would be made to suffer the penalty. The latter testimony was given by him under protest. Sheriff White assures his friends that he will be able to show the complete falsity of all charges against him and show that the prosecution grows out of spite.

The Republican ratification meeting was called to order at eight P. M., at Platt's Hall, by Eugene L. Sullivan, who introduced James Lottis as Chairman of the meeting, supported by about 100 leading citizens as Vice-Presidents, and Messrs. Varpinal, Howe and Weil as Secretaries. The hall was packed to the utmost. Not less than 4,000 persons inside, including 500 or more ladies in the gallery. A large crowd outside were unable to gain admission. They organized a separate meeting in the street. Hon. Romualdo Pacheco having been introduced on the stage within the hall, was received with tremendous applause. He proceeded to give a review of the Republican platform, touching on each plank in detail, and being interrupted from time to time by enthusiastic cheering. When he said "The famous General Moreau, witnessing the magnificent ceremony of the coronation of the first Napoleon, was asked if anything was wanting to complete the grandeur of the scene, he replied: Only the presence of the million men who have died to do away with all this." "The Democratic party was to come back to power, let the roll of the 300,000 dead Union soldiers be called and their mute protest entered." The audience seemed electrified. He then proceeded to consider the railroad subsidy question, affirming that as matters were now progressing a few years would see the entire railroad system of the United States pass into the hands of four men. Jay Gould, Fiske, Scott and Vanderbilt. It cannot be denied that there is a strong undercurrent of opinion to the effect that the Republican feeling on the subsidy question is all sound theory, but no did not so consider it, and would give his reasons for believing that this is one of the greatest and most momentous questions of the day. When Jackson vetoed the United States Bank bill the capital of that corporation was twenty eight millions dollars. To-day we are threatened with combinations of corporate capital a hundred times greater, and it is high time that we look the evil in the face. The Chinese question was treated at length, and the declaration that it is the duty of Government to call for a revision of the treaties, so as to prevent further immigration of the Mongolians, received the loudest and longest applause of any sentiment uttered. The Calhoun and Websterian theories of the Constitution were discussed, and the speaker declared that if anything whatever was settled by the war it was that the Webster ian theory was never hereafter to be questioned. The cry of the destruction of State rights by the successive amendments to the Constitution, was treated humorously and seriously by turns. The speaker thought that the rights of man were above those of States. He had been said that the Republican form of government would fail. All others had failed, and if the Republican form failed, then man himself was a failure and the creation a mistake. He concluded: "Men of San Francisco, you hold the Western pitadel of the Republic. Hold it for justice, hold it for truth, hold it for freedom, hold it for man." Immense applause followed, and while the band was playing the "Battle Cry of Freedom," many gathered around the speaker and shook him warmly by the hand. The Alpheon Quartette Club then sang a campaign song, "Newton Booth, the People's Choice."

At half past nine Hon. Romualdo Pacheco came forward in response to repeated calls and kindly thanked the audience and the party for the confidence shown in him and the honor done him in selecting him as a candidate for the second office in the State. He endorsed the platform recently adopted, and would, if elected, endeavor to carry out the principles there laid down and discharge all his duties as a public officer conscientiously and thoroughly. His remarks were very brief, lasting only five minutes, concluding with the pledge that the Spanish Americans for whom he was authorized to speak, as being to the manor born, would be found as staunch and true in the support of the cause of freedom and the Republican party at the coming election. The quartette then sung another campaign adaption of "Trust him not, he is fooling thee." The meeting is still undiminished at half past ten, hardly anybody having left the hall.

CALLAHAN'S RANCH, July 21.—Last Friday afternoon an infant son of Daniel Fay, of Scott's valley, aged 18 months, strayed from home and was lost. He was not missed till evening, when the neighbors turned out and searched the hills. The little fellow was not found till yesterday afternoon, when his dead body was discovered a mile and a half from the house. His clothes were torn off by brush, and it is supposed death ensued from heat and starvation.

Water Spout and Flood at Oreano.

OREANO, July 21.—A water spout broke loose last evening near west end of side track at Granite Point, eighteen miles west of this place. The track was flooded a quarter of a mile. The west bound passenger train was ditched; nobody hurt. Trains were delayed about twelve hours repairing track and broken draw heads. Trains all on time again on this division.

Miners' League Troubles.

SUTTER CREEK, July 21.—The following is associated concerning the late troubles: The league held a private meeting at Amador City in a saloon last night. Matt Haverly, who belonged to the league but drew out and went to work in the Keystone mine, was in the saloon and was ordered out by President Byrne. He said he would go, and went out and sat down on the sidewalk. They came out and ordered him from there. He said he would go and got about the middle of the street when Byrne came to the door commenced talking mean to him, and he turned to leave, when Byrne pulled a pistol and shot it off—it is thought more to scare Haverly than anything else. Everything was quiet then until today noon, when the leaguers went to the Keystone mine and read the resolutions showing their wrong in working, and told them to quit and let the old hands go to work there. The leaguers here and at Amador are armed to the teeth. A row is anticipated there to-night. The leagues say they will close the mine to-night if the present men don't quit work. Later news says the men will not quit work, and told the league they were working for themselves and not for them.

The Right Kind of a Governor.

The course of Governor Randolph of New Jersey, so strikingly in contrast with that of the dirty politicians of New York city, who struck their colors to the mob and stood abashed before the voting power, is commended in all parts of the country. Gov. Randolph did his duty promptly, and as his proclamation was a day or two in advance of Gov. Hoffman's, its effect was to arouse a public sentiment which compelled Hoffman to act. A dispatch from Morristown, N. J., dated July 15th, shows that Governor Randolph's course was heartily approved by the people of his State. We quote from the dispatch:

Gov. Randolph's neighbors, without distinction of party, serenaded him last evening. The Governor responded, expressing his gratification that any of his public acts should meet the approval of his neighbors, either native or foreign born, Republican or Democratic, Protestant or Catholic. Truth is sacred, and the recent events demonstrated that whatever difference of opinion we may have over our political affairs or our religious faith, or whatever accident of birth may have made us native or foreign born, we are all, if we are as we should be, intensely American—a proud title—and jealous of any act by any people that may tarnish the honor or strike at the privileges of our common country.

The Governor also expressed his satisfaction that during the recent troubles it was not necessary to call on the military to sustain the civil power, and that the forbearance, patience and Christian toleration of the people of New Jersey of all religions and political creeds made it unnecessary.

This is the true American doctrine, and they who cannot subscribe to it have yet to learn and embrace the true principles of American freedom.

The Oregon City Enterprise is wrangling with the Herald over the question whether Senator Kelly has "departed" or not. It is asserted by the Enterprise in emphatic language that he "does not endorse the 'new departure,'" and it censures the Herald for misrepresenting him.

The saw mill of Cromwell & Yeaton, four miles back of Rainier, was burned on Thursday afternoon. Sixty thousand feet of cedar lumber, worth $30 per thousand, and four or five dwelling-houses with their contents were also destroyed. The mill was a new one, erected this season, and had only been running a short time.

A letter from Yamhill county gives this: Wheat crop will commence to be cut next week. Late wheat will be short. Hay crop about all cut. Oats, not a very good prospect.

THE STUDY OF HUMAN NATURE is one of exceeding interest. But there is another theme of which I wish to speak, one more easily understood by the masses in general, and that is the extreme sensitiveness of the pocket. Perhaps the reader can recall instances which have occurred during a business life, illustrative of the above-mentioned fact. Hence, if you would gain a friend replenish his purse; if you would realize the terrors of a enemy, evaporate his purse. Therefore, knowing the wide-spread sensation which may be produced by the former method of operation, I have chosen it, and I make the application simply by saving persons from twenty to one hundred dollars in the purchase of Pianos and Organs; and furthermore, I guarantee my Instruments to give better satisfaction than any other to be found in the market.

REMEMBER—The great number of Instruments sold during the many years past at my Music Ware-Rooms

P. S.—Bear in mind that a few minutes spent in my store, and in the purchase of a Piano or Organ will resound materially to the health of your purse.

Yours truly,

NOTICE TO BATHERS IN THE RIVER.—The ordinance forbidding bathing in the river in front of the city, prescribes certain limits, outside of which there is no prohibition as to bathing. Lately a number of persons have been in the habit of going just without these limits to bathe, notwithstanding that almost everywhere they are in plain view. To cure this sort of thing, the authorities are going after the offenders under the ordinance against indecent exposure of the person, and Judge Deady is of opinion that bathers, in daylight, anywhere within the city limits, are subject to the penalties of that ordinance. One man—a stranger—was up in the Police Court yesterday on such a charge, but was let off with only one day in jail in consideration of his recent arrival and unacquaintance with our laws. SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 22, 1871.

CITY.

NOTICE TO BATHERS IN THE RIVER.—The ordinance forbidding bathing in the river in front of the city prescribes certain limits, outside of which there is no prohibition as to bathing. Lately a number of persons have been in the habit of going just without these limits to bathe, notwithstanding that almost everywhere they are in plain view. To cure this sort of thing, the authorities are going after the offenders under the ordinance against indecent exposure of the person, and Judge Denny is of opinion that bathers, at daylight, anywhere within the city limits, are subject to the penalties of that ordinance. One man—a stranger—was up in the Police Court yesterday on such a charge, but was let off with a fine of one day in jail in consideration of his recent arrival and unacquaintance with our laws. There are parties almost every day who go into the river near the Water Company's engine, at the west end of the city, and at the lower sawmill on Honeyard. These parties are liable to arrest, and this may serve them as a notice to quit.

EXTRAORDINARY PRODUCTIVENESS.—The Enterprise the title of a new publication in this city; and the real estate of DeLashmutt, Burch & Co. That firm has, among others, a certain farm in mill, on which is some "beaver-dam land." To show the productiveness of that kind of land, the Enterprise relates the following: "A lonely man settled on an adjoining claim two years ago and commenced courting his neighbor's daughter. He said his farm was the best of beaver-dam land. The girl's father said the dam was worth a ranch, raise anything—not even white beans. He planted two acres in onions, and married quietly for the result, in the meantime went away with the old man's daughter, just to witness it. To the utter astonishment of everybody, he harvested off that two acres of ground, with no other help than his newly-made bride, 1,100 bushels of onions and a fine, big, fat baby. The child lives exclusively on onions, and has the reputation of being the strongest babe in the world." For further particulars concerning the onion land, the onions and the baby, the reader is referred to the editor of the Enterprise.

DETAINED LETTERS.—The following is a list of letters held for postage at the Portland P. O., July 21, 1871: Miss A. J. Beecker, Omaha; James Butler, Salem, Ogn.; Robert Beer, Portland; E. Beechler, Portland; T. G. Cord, Portland; David Cox, Sacramento; J. T. Campbie, Idaho, I. T.; Clerk Circuit Court, Salem, Ogn.; J. T. Dunn, St. Helens; Rev. T. H. D. Smith, Oakland, Cal.; M. Shackelford, North Yamhill; Miss Jennie Wilson, Vancouver.

CHURCH NOTICES.—The fourth quarterly meeting of the Centenary M. E. Church, Portland, commences to-day at 2 o'clock. All visiting ministers will be present.

Rev. Mr. Fridrichsen, of the Scandinavian Church, will preach to-day at the Lutheran Church, corner of Third and M in the Scandinavian language.

A meeting of members interested in the church organization will be held immediately after the service.

Rev. Henry Taylor will deliver a discourse on the "Signs of the Times" at the Baptist Church, commencing at 8 P. M. on Sunday evening.

In the Presbyterian Church to-morrow Dr. Wyckoff will conduct the services morning and evening. The evening lecture will be on "The Metric System of Weights and Measures"—a subject interesting to all buyers and sellers.

PASSENGERS FOR CALIFORNIA.—The N. P. T. Co.'s steamship Oriflamme, Floyd, Commander, left Ainsworth's dock last evening for San Francisco. The following is a list of her passengers: Mrs. Fitzroth and wife, Hon. J. A. Bingham and wife, Hon. T. D. Edwards, 10 Henry and wife, C. C. Hine, Rev. D. Edwards, Mr. Clayton, Mrs. J. Murphy, Geo. Elwell Jr., Mr. Rawlins, raise anything—not even white beans. He planted two acres in onions, and married quietly for the result, in the meantime went away with the old man's daughter, just to witness it. To the utter astonishment of everybody, he harvested off that two acres of ground, with no other help than his newly-made bride, 1,100 bushels of onions and a fine, big, fat baby. PASSENGERS FOR CALIFORNIA.—The N. P. T. Co.'s steamship Oriflamme, Floyd, Commander, left Ainsworth's dock last evening for San Francisco. The following is a list of her passengers: Mrs. Fitzroth and wife, Hon. J. A. Bingham and wife, Hon. T. D. Edwards, 10 Henry and wife, C. C. Hine, Rev. D. Edwards, Mr. Clayton, Mrs. J. Murphy, Geo. Elwell Jr., Mr. Rawlins and wife, C. J. Newcomb, C. D. Burch and wife, A. Holland, J. H. Spears, Miss L. L. Spears, Miss Edwards, Miss Emma Goodman, E. Traub, Mr. Hellebusch, Hon. J. K. Kelly and wife, J. Hamilton and family, Mrs. Gerst, Mrs. Miller, Annie Kelly, J. Chandler, J. L. Smith, Willis Hill, Henry Clayton, Sister Mary, Sister Calvary, Miss Ella Miller, Julius Lee, Wang Wai, Ah Sing, Wells, Fargo & Co's Messenger, and 38 in steerage.

PORTCHESTER CHRONOLOGICAL MAP.—Rev. S. C. Adams, of Salem, has received a copyright for a Chronological and Historical Map, of which we made mention some time since. Mr. Adams, who is now in this city, has been strongly urged by many of our leading citizens to exhibit the map and deliver a lecture in this city on the subject which it illustrates, and he has, as we learn, consented to do so, at some time, probably, not far in the future. He intends soon to go East with a view to introducing the map into schools, &c. The opinion among historical readers and writers is unanimous upon the point that he has produced a most valuable aid to the study of history, and that it is a work that will be in demand.

RAILROAD WORK.—The contractors on the Oregon Central Railroad are working all the hands available upon the grade and bridges above the city. There is one gang of bridge-builders at the lake, and on the road above there are, we learn, less than five or six camps, besides a force of men engaged in cutting piles. The rails recently received have been hauled up to the Fourth Plain bridge where the first track will be laid.

RAILROAD SURVEY.—The Columbia River and Puget Sound Railroad Company completed their negotiations yesterday, for the purchase of such lands as they want at Columbia City, and the survey of the route will be commenced at that point to-day. The line or lines will be run through to Salem, as soon as practicable.

SHIPMENTS PER OREGONIAN.—The steamship Oriflamme took away last evening the following freight: 275 bales wool, 370 sks oats, 36 pkgs sundries, 50 kegs dried apples, 98 boxes eggs, 10 sks bacon, 20 cs. unk wood, 113 boxes cherries, 142 bbls and 100 cs salmon, 3,000 qr sks flour—total about 300 tons.

PORTLAND LIBRARY.—There has been placed in the Portland Library, "Zell's Popular Encyclopedia," an illustrated universal dictionary of English language, science, literature and art, in two volumes, by L. Collange, L.L.D.

PICNIC AT EAST PORTLAND PARK.—Gen. Don Jose La Vega, who claims to be the smallest full grown man in the world, will have an entertainment at the East Portland Park to-morrow afternoon. Dancing on the grand stand.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—In this Court yesterday, in case of the United States vs. J. L. Cummings; motion for a new trial; argument was opened, and further hearing continued till to-day.

LAID UP.—We learn through a private channel that the Constantine is laid up at San Francisco, for repairs.

PERSONAL.

Among the passengers leaving by steamer last evening, we note the names of Senator Kelly and wife, Hon. John A. Bingham, Rev. D. Edwards and one or two other distinguished visitors.

Rev. T. L. Eliot, of this city, delivered the second lecture before the Literary Societies of Walla Walla University, Salem, on Tuesday evening last. Subject: "The Worth of Thought in the Shop and on the Farm."

The numerous friends of Capt. Wm. Dierdorff, late Grand Master of the Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge of Oregon, will regret to learn that he is lying very dangerously ill at his residence in this city.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Whisky rows among the white and red Indians continue at the camp below the city.

Advertisements for laborers on the railroads and other public works continue to multiply. Where are the croakers about hard times for laborers?

There are several cellars lately flooded with water that are emitting a most horrible stench—large enough to Heaven and offend human olfactories grievously.

Capt. Thos. Johnson of this city, Commandant of the Emmet Guard, and Constable of Couch precinct, has been appointed Notary Public for this county.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

PERSONAL, LOCAL AND STATE NEWS.

Dr. S. A. Young was elected Lay Delegate from McMinnville charge.

Rev. J. F. DeVore is now at Kalama "stirring the ashes," in view of rebuilding the M. E. Church.

The First M. E. church at Tom-Water, W. T., was dedicated on Sabbath last by Rev. J. R. DeVore.

Rev. G. W. Sloan, of Steilacoom, W. T., returned from the East on Thursday evening last, and will start for home by way of Monticello this morning.

Rev. Joseph Thompson, of the Canada Wesleyan Church, left yesterday on a visit to Vancouver, W. T., with the intention of preaching to-morrow, July 23d.

In view of the change in the time of holding the next session of the Annual Conference, the Powell Valley campmeeting will begin the 3d of August and close Monday following.

Rev. I. D. Driver, agent of the American Bible Society, received in Jackson county, by public collections and donations, during the month of July, as follows: Coin, $98 90; currency, $47 20.

We learn that Rev. H. H. Spalding has been reappointed missionary to the Nez Perces Indians by the Presbyterian Mission Board, and also Government agent in charge of the same tribe.

It has been determined that the M. E. church recently burned down at Kalama, W. T., shall be rebuilt. The lumber is already engaged, and we learn that the contract for building will be let next week.

Rev. C. W. Shaw and family, consisting of wife and three children, arrived by the Oriflamme on Wednesday night last. Bro. Shaw was transferred from the Iowa Conference to Oregon by Bishop Ames.

The prospect of an increased working force on the Rock Creek Circuit, Rev. J. H. Allyn, pastor, is very good. One has been licensed to preach and one to exhort, while others are looking in that direction.

Rev. J. Hoberg of Lafayette Circuit, informs us that the frame of the new M. E. Church at McMinnville is up and looks well. Religious matters on that circuit are prosperous, and the finances are all squarely up.

Bishop Edwards, of the United Brethren in Christ, arrived in our city on Saturday last, and has spent several days in waiting for the steamer. The Bishop was elected for the sixth time to the Episcopal office, and is now serving his 22d year in that service. Having presided at the Conference held in Benton county, and more recently that at Walla Walla, he is now returning to his home in Illinois.

In a sermon, delivered in this city last Sunday evening, upon the New York riots, Rev. Mr. Eliot took the ground that while Americans could have no sympathy with the Orange clubs, whose origin had been in a sentiment of oppression to Ireland, their clubs had the most undoubted right to walk in procession, and the wrong was all on one side in the riot, namely: on the side of those who relying on their political power as a shield to the outrage undertook to prevent it. He made an earnest appeal to citizens, based on the principle of individual responsibility in the municipality and the State. No party is worthy of the country which does, in the least degree, the principle of corruption of the ballot. The sale and purchase of votes, from whichever side it comes, threatens ruin and barbarism, though gilded with all the outward show of civilization. The preservation of our institutions is based not only on the general intelligence of the people, but in the conviction of each individual that he is morally responsible for the part he may take in keeping them pure and strong. It is a mistake to suppose that progress is inevitable. We may retrograde, and will, unless all educational, moral and religious forces are kept alive against great and growing evils.

[From the Sentinel.]

Rev. John Heinrich, Secretary to his Grace Most Rev. Archbishop Blanchet, will be raised to the sacred order of the priesthood by that venerable Prelate, in the Cathedral Church of this city to-morrow.

Very Rev. P. X. Wedinger, D. D., S. J., whose recent missions on this coast were productive of so much good, and who is, we are sure, gratefully remembered by our readers and all who have seen and heard him, is now in St. Paul Minn., from whence we have been favored with a letter from him, in which he begs to be remembered to all his friends on this northern coast. Father Wedinger will give missions throughout the State of Minnesota, and most likely through some of the other Western States.

EAST PORTLAND MATTERS.

[From the Era.]

Messrs. Josephine and Weyl met with a generous success in obtaining sufficient funds to have the half block on which stands St. David's Episcopal Church nicely fenced in.

Arrangements have been made by the Odd Fellows' Hall Association of this city to introduce gas into their new and elegant hall, about completed, on J street. The hall room will be illuminated with about twenty lights. The machine ordered is the new patent of the Atmospheric Pressure Gas Company, and the gas is manufactured from gasoline.

Speaking of the proposed ferry between foot of U street and Portland, the Era says: We understand Mr. Knott promises to have the boat and landing completed by the time the road and bridge is finished on U street. This ferry will accommodate a large number of our citizens in the Southern portion of the county, where any number of saw and grist mills are situated, as well as the increasing number of families in Stephens' and Tibbetts' Additions.

This elegant edifice, [Odd Fellows' Hall] built by the East Portland Odd Fellows' Hall Association, is about completed. It is 30x65 feet, two stories; lower story 15 feet high, containing hall 30x60 feet, to be used for public purposes. The second story is 16 feet high, containing hall for Lodge purposes, 30x50 feet, with ante rooms, etc., attached. The entire edifice is hard-finished—the ceilings arched and decorated in the highest style of art. The entire cost of the building when completed will be not less than $4,000. The hall will be most superbly furnished for the comfort and convenience of the officers and members of Orient Lodge, at a cost of about $1,500, making the total cost of hall and furniture, with gas apparatus complete, about $5,500. This is an exhibition of the progress and success of Odd Fellowship in our midst, Orient Lodge having started three years ago with but seven charter members, and now numbering over fifty members, with quite a fund in the treasury and the new hall ready for occupancy.

INDIAN DEPREDATIONS.

STOCK STOLEN—A CAMP BURNED AND BROKEN UP.

Yesterday forenoon the following dispatch was received by Col. Jos. Teal:

TROUT CREEK, via Dalles, July 20, 1871.

JOS. TEAL: Wm. Hamilton has just arrived from Silvie's river, and reports your best cattle all stolen, and provisions all burned by Indians. The Indians made a dash on to the camp in the morning of the 18th, and stole five horses and stampeded the cattle and run the hogs out of camp.

W. H. GATES.

Col. Teal had on the Silvie's river ranch about 600 head of beef cattle—steers of about four or five years old. The extent of his loss is not, of course, known. It had been his intention to unite another band of cattle with that on the Silvie's river ranch; but he does not know whether it had been done at the date above mentioned. If so, his loss will be about 1,200 head of cattle. He informs us that Gen. Canby has already forwarded orders to the various camps and posts in the neighborhood of the depredations, to assist in the pursuit of the Indians and recovery of the cattle. Col. Teal will, himself, start this morning for the scene of trouble with arms and ammunition. As the dispatch above published contains all that is known of the trouble, the whole affair is, of course, in some obscurity as to facts.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Several lots of the Raleigh tract will be sold at Guardian's sale, at the Court-house, at one o'clock this afternoon—Oscar Kilbourn, auctioneer.

THE PATENT ARGAND LAMP.—Mr. H. Sinsheimer this morning advertises this make of lamp, which is said to have taken the first premium at the Fair of the American Institute in 1867 and in 1869, over all competitors and over pianos which had before obtained first premiums at the great French Exposition in Paris. Read Mr. Sinsheimer's advertisement.

AMUSEMENTS.

PARLOR SKATING.—This evening the skaters will hold high carnival at the Pavilion. Crowds are in attendance every evening.

THE GARIBALDI.—Mr. O. S. Phelps is just in receipt of a letter from Capt. Noyes, dated June 5th, announcing that he would sail on the 7th. He said he would bring about 120 passengers, a cargo for the Tong Duck Chung Co. and a collection of curiosities for friends in this city.

Midsummer Maladies.

The hot solar rays that ripen the harvests generate many distressing diseases. If the liver be at all predisposed to irregularities, this is the season in which bilious attacks may be anticipated. A weak stomach, too, is weakest in the summer months, and the loss of vitality through the pores by excessive perspiration is so great, that a wholesome tonic, combining also the properties of a diffusive stimulant, is to many cases necessary to health, and under no circumstances should be dispensed with by the sickly and debilitated. Of all the preparations intended thus to refresh, sustain and fortify the human frame there is none that will compare with Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters. They have been weighed in the balance of experience and not found wanting; having been recommended from the first as a great medicinal specific, not as a beverage, and in spite of interested opposition from innumerable quarters, stand, after a twenty years' trial, at the head of all proprietary medicines intended for the prevention and cure of all ordinary complaints of the stomach, the liver, the bowels and the nerves. In the unhealthy districts bordering the great rivers of the South and West, Hostetter's Bitters may be classed as the standard one, for every species of intermittent or remittent fever. The people who inhabit those districts place the most implicit confidence in the preparation—a confidence that is increased every year by the results of its operation.

As bitters, so called, of the most pernicious character are springing up like fungi on every side, the public is hereby forewarned against the dram-shop trash. Ask for Hostetter's Bitters, see that the label, etc., are correct, and remember that the genuine article is never sold in bulk, but in bottles only.

EXECUTION BY THE VIGILANTES OF VIRGINIA CITY.

VIRGINIA CITY, Nev., July 14.—The Gold Hill News of this evening has the following: About 11 o'clock last night George B. Kirk was taken by the Vigilance Committee to a point on the Geiger Grade, opposite the Sierra Nevada Mill, and summarily hung. Directly after the hanging of Arthur Perkins, a few months ago by the Vigilance Committee, Kirk, together with several other bad characters, was NOTIFIED TO LEAVE.

All did so, Kirk going to Eureka. He got tired of that part of the country, and took the chances of coming back after being absent a few weeks. He only stayed a day or two before he received

ANOTHER PEREMPTORY NOTICE

To leave, and went to Carson. He remained there till yesterday afternoon, when he came back to Virginia, although he was fully advised that it was at the risk of his life. But he expressed the intention of going to Ophir Canon in the vicinity of Salt Lake. He said he was going to leave on the stage this evening, taking a trunk and some things he had left in Virginia, and also said that he had just money enough to take him out there. Last evening

HE BOLDLY TOOK A CRUISE ABOUT TOWN,

Although friends advised him to keep quietly out of sight till he should leave the city. But under the influence of liquor, he became reckless and defiant. He was at Scott's dance-house on C street for a short time and at other places, and finally went to the house of a woman known as "Dutch Mary," on North C street, opposite the City Hall. He had been there but a short time and was sitting in the front room

DRINKING WHISKY WITH A WOMAN,

When suddenly a knock was heard at the door, which was locked. Mary asked: "Who's there?" "A friend," was the reply, and she opened the door. A stranger came in with officer McCready of the police. The officer stepped forward and said: "George, I want you; come along." Kirk arose and, talking with the officer, had just stepped outside the door, when

SEVERAL MEN SPRANG UPON HIM.

From the darkness. They thrust the officer rudely aside, and in another instant had Kirk inside a carriage, which was standing in the street apparently for the purpose, and drove off in the direction of Cedar Hill. The stranger had also disappeared. McCready and the woman both came up to town and lodged information in the proper quarter. McCready says he met the stranger, a gentlemanly appearing man, on the street, who said he had been assaulted and abused by Kirk, who was in the house indicated, and wanted him arrested. The officer went to the house, with the result related. This stranger was evidently one of the Vigilantes.

THE PLACE SELECTED FOR THE EXECUTION

Was the old car track of the Sierra Nevada mine, leading from the large gravel pit on works just above the Geiger Grade, and directly opposite the mill. The car track comes out on the work to the height of twenty feet or more above the steep hillside, and the particular point of suspension was about fifty or sixty feet from the road. Judging from foot tracks and other information, there must have been nearly or quite

TWO HUNDRED OF THE COMMITTEE

But so quietly, speedily and systematically was the affair conducted that no intimation was given of their movements, and no one about town seemed to know any thing about it till it was all over. Neither was there any unusual crowd or excitement noticed, as by

A PRECONCEIVED PLAN

The Committee was divided up into several bodies, and passed straggling along B, C, and E streets, all toward Cedar Hill and joining together on the Geiger Grade. The rope was tied around the north side or stringer of the track, and, judging by Kirk's neck being broken and quite deeply cut into by the rope, he must have stood upon the track and jumped, or was dropped off. Some little blood had also oozed from his mouth.

DEATH WAS, DOUBTLESS, INSTANTANEOUS.

Immediately upon receiving information of the capture of Kirk, Deputy Sheriff Stoner, with a posse, started out with lanterns. They went at once to the old Ophir works, where Arthur Perkins was hung, but were unsuccessful in finding either Kirk or the track of his captors. Subsequently Sheriff Atkinson and others got on his track, and shortly after 1 o'clock this morning

FOUND THE BODY OF KIRK SUSPENDED

Where we have described. His feet and knees were bound, and his hands tied behind him. A handkerchief bandaged his eyes, and upon the front of his shirt was a piece of white paper, with the following inscription: "George B. Kirk—Committed, 601." Returning to town, the Sheriff notified Coroner Symons, who called upon Undertaker Wilson, and going to the place of execution

THE BODY WAS BROUGHT IN

About half past 3 o'clock this morning, and placed at the undertakers. But little excitement was noticeable, the people everywhere seeming rather surprised than excited, and inclined to quietly discuss the merits of the case. In the pockets of the deceased were found a valuable gold watch, some letters and papers, and a small sum of money.

HISTORY OF THE VICTIM.

George B. Kirk was born in Fayette county, Missouri, and was about 36 years old. He came to California at an early age, and has never been noted for good character. He is said to have killed his uncle before leaving home, and also a man in California. While serving out a term in the Nevada State Prison for burglary, five years ago, he took an active part in the famous prison break, when Alexander Hunter, the Warden, received a severe wound in the arm, from which he subsequently died. Kirk was charged with having fired the fatal shot, but he could not be proven guilty. Since his release from the State Prison, he lived at Virginia, until the death of Perkins. He has not been engaged in any legitimate occupation, and his cabin has been the rendezvous of all the regular thieves, incendiaries, etc.

THE EXACT CAUSE OF THE PRESENT SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS

In this case is doubtless the fact that since the hanging of Perkins and his own expatriation, he has on various occasions publicly threatened to retaliate, and only a day or two since he stated in Carson that he would come to Virginia when he pleased and kill anybody who dared to interfere with him. He has threatened the Committee many times and loudly boasted that all he wanted was to come across some of them.

Various Items about the New York Riot.

The officers of the Irish Brigade Association held a meeting at the Astor House on the 18th, and adopted resolutions deploring the events of the 19th, and denouncing as slanderous the insinuations or assertions that the great body of Irish citizens of New York are in any manner responsible for the occurrences. They also declare that they saw no evidence that the trouble was so much that it could not have been suppressed by the civil power, and therefore believe that the employment of the militia and firing upon the people ought to be investigated.

An unfavorable approval of the defeat of the Hibernians is given in a conversation by a Tammany official, who says: "I am an Irish Catholic; I have to be much with those people who have caused all this trouble, and I say that if this show of strength had not been made by the authorities, the best part of the city would have been in flames before morning. I know their strength and their intentions, and I tell you if was necessary to crush them, for public safety."

The Board of Police has assured the officers of the Eighty-fourth Regiment that the conduct of that regiment during the riot was entirely justifiable and proper under the circumstances. General Varian, commander of the brigade to which the Eighty-fourth Regiment belongs, has sent a letter to Lieutenant Colonel Mitchell of that regiment, stating that the only reason for changing the position of the regiment during the riot was because of the severity of the first attack on that regiment. General Varian also states that the attack required prompt and immediate repulsion, and if present he would have given orders to fire without hesitation.

Two German clubs have been organized in Brooklyn since the riot, each member pledging himself that he would vote only for citizens of American birth to hold office.

Sermons were preached in a number of churches on the 16th on the riot. In the absence of the bishop, who was out of town, Father Connery preached at St. Patrick's Cathedral, from Mathew, seventh chapter. He cautioned people against false teachers, who, caring only to gain their ends, led them on the path of destruction, and, without directly naming the instigators of the disturbance, exhorted the people in future to follow the advice of their divinely commissioned teachers, who always spoke to them for their benefit.

At the church of St. Paul, Rev. Father Dehaw, speaking in reference to the riot, claimed that the priests were the divinely ordained guides of their flocks in matters political as well as spiritual; that it was the duty of the latter to follow the counsels of their pastors; and that they would thus be guaranteed against error.

At St. Columbus' Church Rev. Father Haggerty advised Irishmen to bury the feuds and animosities of the old land, and cultivate friendly relations with Orangemen.

At Indianapolis on the 15th a meeting was held to give an expression of feeling in regard to the recent riot in New York. Resolutions were passed declaring the right of citizens publicly to assemble on all lawful occasions as sacred; denouncing the action of the mob as an attack on civil liberty, and the action of Mayor Hall in issuing his proclamation against the Orango parade as a cowardly yielding to ruffianism, and commending the action of Governors Hoffman and Randolph. A resolution charging the Catholic Church with the responsibility of the riot was voted down.

The World, which has been so hard pushed of late for some ground of attack on President Grant that it had to copy a standing advertisement from the Sun, alleging that a hundred and fifty-fourth cousin of the President was a partner of some one who held a Government office, has at last discovered a charge of a very serious nature. It seems that Gen. Grant had been guilty of "discourtesy to the Pope," a crime that was duly announced to the American people in flaming-head lines in yesterday's World. The discourtesy consisted, according to the World's Ithian correspondent, in the fact that Gen. Grant did not, as far as the correspondent could learn, telegraphed his congratulations to the Pope on his reaching the twenty-fifth anniversary of his reign. This is certainly an offense which the American people will find it difficult to overlook, much less to pardon; and we congratulate the Democratic Party on being able to enter the next Presidential campaign with one charge against the opposing candidate which they may possibly be able to substantiate.—*N.
